CPRA OIL SPILL 2022

BACKGROUND

In 2009, Act 523 of the Louisiana Legislature created the Office of Coastal Protection and Restoration (OCPR) as an implementation and enforcement arm of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority (CPRA). In 2012, Act 604 of the Louisiana Legislature renamed the CPRA as the CPRA Board and changed its implementation and enforcement arm from OCPR to CPRA.

CPRA is tasked with developing, implementing, and enforcing the comprehensive coastal protection and restoration master plan. CPRA is also responsible for administering funds related to the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill through the Resources and Ecosystems Sustainability, Tourist Opportunities, and Revived Economies of the Gulf Coast States Act, Natural Resources Damage Assessment, and National Fish and Wildlife Foundation settlements and/or grants. These funds are provided for the acquisition of land for conservation, restoration of barrier islands, restoration of inland marshes, construction of shoreline restoration and protection barriers, river diversions, and construction of coastal infrastructure.

CPRA restoration projects funded by the Deepwater Horizon oil spill settlement and penalties are intended to restore Louisiana's coast from the impacts and losses associated with the oil spill disaster. Examples of typical restoration activities include:

- Barrier Island/Headland Restoration - Creation and restoration of dune, beach, and back-barrier marsh to restore or augment Louisiana's offshore barrier islands and headlands.
- Diversions - Use of channels and/or structures to divert sediment and fresh water from the Mississippi and Atchafalaya Rivers into adjacent basins.
- Marsh Creation - Creation of new wetlands in open water areas through sediment dredging and placement. Most of these projects involve pipeline conveyance of sediment.

Dear Mr. Waguespack:

RE: Audit Report - Engagement for Agreed Upon Procedures with the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority

I am writing to provide a response to the audit report for the engagement to apply agreed-upon procedures to expenditures funded with NFWF, NRDA, and RESTORE sources for the period July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022. We are pleased that this year's audit review yielded no findings. As a result of applying the agreed upon procedures, the auditors did not note any exceptions for the 1,366 expenditures reviewed for CPRA, totaling $238,832,868.

As we have stated numerous times previously and can again say this year, we value the service this audit group is providing to CPRA. We view the engagement as an important tool in assessing the accuracy of the expenditures that are paid with oil spill funding sources. Additionally, your team of auditors provide specialized expertise to CPRA management regarding contract language and contractor billing.

We look forward to the next review period and working with your team. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at 342-4698.

Sincerely,

Janice A. Lansing
