Why We Conducted This Audit

We audited the financial statements of the Louisiana Public Facilities Authority (Authority) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2018, to provide accountability over public funds.

What We Found

- The Authority’s financial statements are fairly stated for the year ended December 31, 2018.
- The Authority administers student loans programs with student loan receivables (principle and interest) totaling $190 million as of December 31, 2018.
- The Authority acts as a conduit debt issuer to provide capital financing for state and local governments and nonprofit organizations and has issued bonds of approximately $3.5 billion during the five-year period ended December 31, 2018, as presented in the chart below.

The Authority is a financing authority created in 1974 as a public trust and public corporation pursuant to an indenture of trust. The Authority has the ability to issue both taxable and tax-exempt bonds to finance everything from educational facilities to hospitals, student loans, industrial and economic development projects, and essential programs for state and local governmental units.
