INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center

Report on Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2025, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center as of June 30, 2025, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The schedule of compensation, benefits, and other payments to agency heads is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards, as required by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements.

The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the supplementary information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated December 30, 2025, on our consideration of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 2025

A: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of activities

The Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center (STAR) is a community wide, non-profit agency exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. STAR was incorporated on August 18, 2011 with the purpose of continuing the efforts of its predecessor, the Rape Crisis Center, which was a division of the District Attorney of the 19th Judicial District. STAR's mission is to support survivors of sexual trauma, improve systems response, and create social change to end sexual violence. STAR currently provides services to the Central, Capital, and Greater New Orleans Regions of South Louisiana.

Basis of accounting

STAR prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting. Under this method of accounting, revenue is recognized when earned or billed, and expenses are recognized when goods or services are received and the obligation for payment is incurred.

Basis of presentation

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC). STAR reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions - resources available to support operations and not subject to donor restrictions. The only limits on the use of net assets without donor restrictions are the broad limits resulting from the nature of STAR, the environment in which it operates, the purposes specified in its corporate documents and application for tax-exempt status, and any limits resulting from contractual agreements with creditors and others that are entered into in the course of its operations.

Net assets with donor restrictions - resources that are subject to donor-imposed restrictions. Some restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that are restricted by a donor for use for a particular purpose or in a particular future period. Other restrictions may be perpetual in nature; such as those that are restricted by a donor that the resources be maintained in perpetuity.

When a donor's restriction is satisfied, either by using the resources in the manner specified by the donor or by the passage of time, the expiration of the restriction is reported in the financial statements by reclassifying the net assets from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions.

Revenue recognition

STAR utilizes the guidance in the FASB ASC in the assessment of whether revenue is an exchange transaction or contribution and considers factors including commensurate value received, reciprocity, and donor-imposed conditions. Contributions and grants are recorded as increases in net assets with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets, or if they are designated as support for future periods. When donor restrictions expire, that is, when the stipulated time restriction ends or the purpose of the restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the Statement of Activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Contributions and grants with donor restrictions that are both received and satisfied within the same year are recorded as an increase in net assets with donor restrictions and as a satisfaction of program restrictions.

STAR receives grant funding from federal agencies, state and local governments, and private sources. Excess expenses incurred are non-reimbursable to STAR. Advance payments from grantors are recorded as refundable advances until expensed for their intended purpose.

STAR recognizes revenue from customers when it transfers promised goods or services to its customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which STAR expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods and services. To accomplish this, STAR applies the following five-step process to achieve this core principle:

- Identification of the contract with the customer;
- Identification of the performance obligations of the contract;
- Determination of the transaction price;
- Allocation of the transaction price to the identified performance obligations; and
- Recognition of revenue when (or as) an entity satisfies the identified performance obligations.

STAR receives program revenue for consulting services and professional training. Revenue for these services are recognized when the services occur.

Revenue disaggregation

STAR disaggregates revenue from contracts with customers into major revenue streams and based on the timing of recognized revenue. STAR's revenue disaggregated based on timing of the transfer of goods or services as follows for the year ended June 30, 2025:

Recognized at a point in time:
Program service revenue	$	520

Contract Balances

Contract assets represent STAR's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that have been transferred to the customer before payment is due. Contract liabilities include consideration due or paid by a customer prior to when STAR transfers goods or services and represents STAR's obligation to the customers. Included in other receivables on the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, is $0 and $0, respectively, of accounts receivable from contracts.

Payment terms

The majority of STAR's program revenue is billed after the performance obligations transpire.

Determination of the transaction price

The transaction price of a contract is the amount of consideration to which STAR expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to a customer. Transaction prices do not include amounts collected on behalf of third parties. To determine the contract price of a contract, STAR considers its customary business practices as well as the terms of the contract. For the purpose of determining transaction prices, STAR assumes that the services will be transferred to the customer as promised in accordance with existing contracts and that contracts will not be cancelled, renewed, or modified. Most of the STAR's contracts with customers have fixed transaction prices that are denominated in U.S. dollars and payable in cash.

In most cases, consideration paid for consulting services and professional training is refundable prior to the date of the event or service. Therefore, at the time the revenue is recognized, STAR does not estimate expected refunds for services nor does STAR exclude any such amounts from revenue.

Advertising and Marketing Costs

STAR expenses advertising and marketing costs when incurred.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, STAR considers all unrestricted highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when acquired to be cash equivalents.

Prepaid expenses and program supplies on hand

Insurance and similar services which extend benefits over more than one accounting period are recorded as prepaid expenses. Program supplies on hand are recorded as assets and expensed as the supplies are used in program activities.

Receivables and credit losses

Receivables consist primarily of amounts due from federal reimbursable grants and are evaluated for expected credit losses. Based on the nature of these receivables and historical collection experience, management believes expected credit losses are not material, and no allowance has been recorded.

Property and equipment

Acquisitions of property and equipment in excess of $500 are capitalized. Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation with depreciation being calculated on the straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets as follows:

Leasehold improvements	20 years
Furniture and equipment	3-5 years
Machinery and equipment	5 years

When property is retired or otherwise disposed of, the accounts are relieved of the applicable cost and accumulated depreciation, and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in operations.

Contributed services

Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by STAR. These services are recorded, based on the fair value of the services provided, as in-kind contributions on the Statement of Activities and the Statement of Functional Expenses. Volunteer services are not recognized in the financial statements when the recognition criteria are not met. For the year ended June 30, 2025 STAR recognized $34,770 of donated services and is reflected in the accompanying financial statements as contributed services and corresponding expense as contract service expense category.

Contributed nonfinancial assets

Donations of property and equipment are recorded as contributions at the fair market value on the date received. Such donations are reported as unrestricted contributions unless the donor has restricted the donated asset to a specific purpose. Assets donated with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted contributions. Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those donated assets must be maintained, STAR reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. STAR reclassifies restricted net assets at that time.

Income taxes

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been included in the financial statements.

STAR accounts for income taxes in accordance with the income tax accounting guidance included in the FASB ASC. Under this guidance, STAR may recognize the tax effects from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by tax authorities.

STAR has evaluated its position regarding the accounting for uncertain income tax positions and does not believe that it has any material uncertain tax positions.

The Organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits in progress.

Compensated absences

STAR allows employees to accrue unused annual leave subject to specified limits on the number of hours. Upon termination or resignation, the outstanding balance of unused leave is paid to the employee. An accrual of annual leave has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements.

Functional expenses

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the Statement of Functional Expenses. Accordingly, certain costs are charged specifically to a program or function, and the remaining costs are allocated among programs, administrative and fund raising based upon estimates of staff time devoted to these functions.

Description of programs

The following is a description of STAR's programs:

Advocacy – STAR provides survivor-centered comprehensive case management, 24/7 hotline support, hospital accompaniment, legal system accompaniment, crisis intervention, and financial assistance to survivors of sexual violence and their loved ones in the aftermath of sexual assault. These services are provided in an effort to drastically reduce survivors' experiences of trauma and give survivors the support that is needed to move forward with healing.

Counseling – STAR provides trauma-focused individual and group therapy to survivors of sexual violence and their loved ones at no cost by licensed and highly trained mental health professionals.

Legal – STAR provides trauma-informed, survivor-centered comprehensive legal services at no cost to primary survivors of sexual assault with the purpose of obtaining safety, stability, and justice as it is defined by the survivor.

Social Change – To reduce the prevalence of sexual trauma and address the root causes of sexual violence, STAR also commits to fostering social change by raising awareness through outreach and research, providing prevention education, and empowering communities to develop unique prevention and intervention strategies tailored to their needs.

Leases

The Organization uses a right-of-use (ROU) model that requires a lessee to record an ROU asset and a lease liability on the statement of financial position for all leases with terms longer than 12 months. Leases are classified as either finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern of expense recognition in the statement of activities.

The Organization has elected the short-term lease practical expedient and does not recognize ROU assets or lease liabilities for leases with terms of 12 months or less. For leases that do not provide an implicit rate, the Organization has elected to use the risk-free rate as the discount rate.

B: CONCENTRATION OF REVENUE

STAR receives a significant portion of its funding through government grants and contracts and is therefore vulnerable to changes in the legislative priorities of federal, state, and local governments. Significant funding sources for the year ended June 30, 2025, representing the following percentages of total support and revenue, are as follows:

U.S. Department of Justice (direct)	15%
Louisiana Commission on Law Enforcement (pass through)	27%
Louisiana Foundation Against Sexual Assault (pass through)	10%

STAR also receives a significant portion of its funding through donations from private foundations. For the year ended June 30, 2025, contributions from one private foundation accounted for 16% of the total support and revenues.

C: PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

The following is a summary of property and equipment at cost, less accumulated depreciation as of June 30, 2025:

Leasehold improvements	$ 33,635
Furniture and equipment	36,297
Machinery and equipment	240,472
Website and software	18,360
	328,764
Accumulated depreciation	(272,001)
	$ 56,763

Depreciation expense was $26,332 for the year ended June 30, 2025.

D: CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

STAR maintains deposits in a local financial institution with balances at times that may exceed the $250,000 of insurance provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Management has placed these funds in a high-quality institution in order to minimize the risk. At June 30, 2025, STAR's account balances exceeded insured limits by $1,483,516.

E: RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

STAR has entered into cooperative endeavor agreements with local governmental agencies which provided support totaling $50,000. Each governmental agency has a representative on the Board of Directors. The funds provided through these agreements are without restrictions.

F: LEASE COMMITMENTS

STAR leases office space in Baton Rouge, Louisiana under an agreement that is classified as an operating lease. The Baton Rouge office lease provides for monthly rent of $9,956 and expires on February 28, 2026. The lease includes an optional renewal period that is not reasonably certain to be exercised. STAR evaluates the renewal options on a lease-by-lease basis and includes them in the right-of-use asset and lease liability balances when they become reasonably certain to be exercised. Right-of-use assets and related liabilities have been calculated using a weighted average risk-free discount rate of 4.27%. The weighted-average remaining lease term for lease, excluding those classified as short term, was 0.67 years as of June 30, 2025.

STAR also leases office space in Alexandria, and New Orleans, Louisiana under agreements that are classified as short-term leases. The Alexandria office lease is month-to-month and provides for monthly rent of $2,100. The New Orleans office is month-to-month and provides for monthly rent of $6,000 per month.

The total lease expense under these agreements was $216,672 for the year ended June 30, 2025.

As of June 30, 2025, future undiscounted lease payments under operating leases totaled $79,648, all of which are due within one year. Of this amount, $1,260 represents imputed interest, resulting in an operating lease liability of $78,388.

G: NON-CASH INVESTING AND FINANCING ACTIVITIES

There were no non-cash investing and financing activities during the year ended June 30, 2025.

H: CONTINGENCIES

During the year ended June 30, 2025, STAR received $1,284,398 in federal awards. Amounts received under these programs are subject to audit by the grantors and funding in excess of allowable costs, if any, may have to be returned to the grantor. Management is of the opinion that no material liability will result from such audits, if any, that may be conducted.

I: LIQUIDITY

The following represents STAR’s financial assets as of June 30, 2025, reduced by amounts not available for general use because of contractual restrictions within one year of the statement of financial position date:

Financial assets at June 30, 2025
Cash	$ 1,728,836
Grants receivable	508,619
Amounts unavailable for general expenditures within one year, due to contractual or donor-imposed restrictions	(270,102)
	$ 1,967,353

As part of the organization’s liquidity management, STAR maintains sufficient cash balances throughout the year through the receipt of grants and donations.

K: NET ASSETS WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS

Net assets with donor restrictions consist of funds designated by donors or grantors for specific purposes or programs. As of June 30, 2025, amounts restricted to use for specific programmatic areas was as follows:

Baton Rouge operations	$ 152,720
Advocacy	69,670

June 30, 2025

NOTE A—BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards (the Schedule) includes the federal award activity of STAR under programs of the federal government for the year ended June 30, 2025. The information in this Schedule is presented in accordance with the requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Because the Schedule presents only a selected portion of the operations of STAR, it is not intended to and does not present the financial position, changes in net assets, or cash flows of STAR.

NOTE B—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Expenditures reported on the Schedule are reported on the accrual basis of accounting. Such expenditures are recognized following the cost principles contained in Uniform Guidance, wherein certain types of expenditures are not allowable or are limited as to reimbursement.

NOTE C—INDIRECT COST RATE

STAR has not elected to use the 10% de minimis indirect cost rate as allowed under the Uniform Guidance.

NOTE D—SUBRECIPIENT ACTIVITY

STAR did not pass federal funds through to subrecipients during the year ended June 30, 2025.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS
BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH *GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

The Board of Directors
Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2025, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated December 30, 2025.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Organization's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT
ON COMPLIANCE FOR EACH MAJOR PROGRAM AND ON INTERNAL CONTROL
OVER COMPLIANCE REQUIRED BY THE UNIFORM GUIDANCE

The Board of Directors
Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

We have audited Sexual Trauma Awareness and Response Center's (STAR) compliance with the types of compliance requirements identified as subject to audit in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of STAR's major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2025. STAR's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

In our opinion, STAR complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2025.

Basis for Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Our responsibilities under those standards and the Uniform Guidance are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance section of our report.

We are required to be independent of STAR and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. Our audit does not provide a legal determination of STAR's compliance with the compliance requirements referred to above.

Responsibilities of Management for Compliance

Management is responsible for compliance with the requirements referred to above and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of effective internal control over compliance with the requirements of laws, statutes, regulations, rules, and provisions of contracts or grant agreements applicable to STAR's federal programs.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether material noncompliance with the compliance requirements referred to above occurred, whether due to fraud or error, and express an opinion on STAR's compliance based on our audit. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards, and the Uniform Guidance will always detect material noncompliance when it exists. The risk of not detecting material noncompliance resulting from fraud is higher than for that resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Noncompliance with the compliance requirements referred to above is considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, it would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user of the report on compliance about STAR's compliance with the requirements of each major federal program as a whole.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards, and the Uniform Guidance, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material noncompliance, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding STAR's compliance with the compliance requirements referred to above and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.
- Obtain an understanding of STAR's internal control over compliance relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of STAR's internal control over compliance. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in internal control over compliance that we identified during the audit.

Report on Internal Control over Compliance

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance section above and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in internal control over compliance. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in internal control over compliance may exist that were not identified.

Our audit was not designed for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

- iii. Each employee responsible for collecting cash is not also responsible for posting collection entries to the general ledger or subsidiary ledgers, unless another employee/official is responsible for reconciling ledger postings to each other and to the deposit; and

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- iv. The employee(s) responsible for reconciling cash collections to the general ledger and/or subsidiary ledgers, by revenue source and/or agency fund additions, is (are) not also responsible for collecting cash, unless another employee/official verifies the reconciliation.

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- D. Randomly select two deposit dates for each of the 5 bank accounts selected for Bank Reconciliations procedure #3A (select the next deposit date chronologically if no deposits were made on the dates randomly selected and randomly select a deposit if multiple deposits are made on the same day). Alternatively, the practitioner may use a source document other than bank statements when selecting the deposit dates for testing, such as a cash collection log, daily revenue report, receipt book, etc. Obtain supporting documentation for each of the 10 deposits and:

- i. Observe that receipts are sequentially pre-numbered.

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- ii. Trace sequentially pre-numbered receipts, system reports, and other related collection documentation to the deposit slip.

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- iii. Trace the deposit slip total to the actual deposit per the bank statement.

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- iv. Observe that the deposit was made within one business day of receipt at the collection location (within one week if the depository is more than 10 miles from the collection location or the deposit is less than $100 and the cash is stored securely in a locked safe or drawer).

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- v. Trace the actual deposit per the bank statement to the general ledger.

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

5) Non-Payroll Disbursements (excluding card purchases, travel reimbursements, and petty cash purchases)

- A. Obtain a listing of locations that process payments for the fiscal period and management's representation that the listing is complete. Randomly select 5 locations (or all locations if less than 5).

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- B. For each location selected under procedure #5A above, obtain a listing of those employees involved with non-payroll purchasing and payment functions. Obtain written policies and procedures relating to employee job duties (if the agency has no written policies and procedures, then inquire of employees about their job duties), and observe that job duties are properly segregated such that

- i. At least two employees are involved in initiating a purchase request, approving a purchase, and placing an order or making the purchase;

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- ii. At least two employees are involved in processing and approving payments to vendors;

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- iii. The employee responsible for processing payments is prohibited from adding/modifying vendor files, unless another employee is responsible for periodically reviewing changes to vendor files;

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- iv. Either the employee/official responsible for signing checks mails the payment or gives the signed checks to an employee to mail who is not responsible for processing payments; and

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- v. Only employees/officials authorized to sign checks approve the electronic disbursement (release) of funds, whether through automated clearinghouse (ACH), electronic funds transfer (EFT), wire transfer, or some other electronic means.

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- C. For each location selected under procedure #5A above, obtain the entity's non-payroll disbursement transaction population (excluding cards and travel reimbursements) and obtain management's representation that the population is complete. Randomly select 5 disbursements for each location, obtain supporting documentation for each transaction, and

- i. Observe whether the disbursement, whether by paper or electronic means, matched the related original itemized invoice and supporting documentation indicates that deliverables included on the invoice were received by the entity, and
Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.
 - ii. Observe whether the disbursement documentation included evidence (e.g., initial/date, electronic logging) of segregation of duties tested under procedure #5B above, as applicable.
Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.
- D. Using the entity's main operating account and the month selected in Bank Reconciliations procedure #3A, randomly select 5 non-payroll-related electronic disbursements (or all electronic disbursements if less than 5) and observe that each electronic disbursement was (a) approved by only those persons authorized to disburse funds (e.g., sign checks) per the entity's policy, and (b) approved by the required number of authorized signers per the entity's policy. Note: If no electronic payments were made from the main operating account during the month selected the practitioner should select an alternative month and/or account for testing that does include electronic disbursements.
Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

6) Credit Cards/Debit Cards/Fuel Cards/Purchase Cards (Cards)

- A. Obtain from management a listing of all active credit cards, bank debit cards, fuel cards, and purchase cards (cards) for the fiscal period, including the card numbers and the names of the persons who maintained possession of the cards. Obtain management's representation that the listing is complete.
Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.
- B. Using the listing prepared by management, randomly select 5 cards (or all cards if less than 5) that were used during the fiscal period. Randomly select one monthly statement or combined statement for each card (for a debit card, randomly select one monthly bank statement). Obtain supporting documentation, and
- i. Observe whether there is evidence that the monthly statement or combined statement and supporting documentation (e.g., original receipts for credit/debit card purchases, exception reports for excessive fuel card usage) were reviewed and approved, in writing (or electronically approved) by someone other than the authorized card holder (those instances requiring such approval that may constrain the legal authority of certain public officials, such as the mayor of a Lawrason Act municipality, should not be reported); and
Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

- ii. Observe that finance charges and late fees were not assessed on the selected statements.

Results: There were finance charges on the credit card statement selected for testing.

- C. Using the monthly statements or combined statements selected under procedure #6B above, excluding fuel cards, randomly select 10 transactions (or all transactions if less than 10) from each statement, and obtain supporting documentation for the transactions (e.g., each card should have 10 transactions subject to inspection). For each transaction, observe that it is supported by (1) an original itemized receipt that identifies precisely what was purchased, (2) written documentation of the business/public purpose, and (3) documentation of the individuals participating in meals (for meal charges only). For missing receipts, the practitioner should describe the nature of the transaction and observe whether management had a compensating control to address missing receipts, such as a “missing receipt statement” that is subject to increased scrutiny.

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.

7) Travel and Travel-Related Expense Reimbursements (excluding card transactions)

- A. Obtain from management a listing of all travel and travel-related expense reimbursements during the fiscal period and management’s representation that the listing or general ledger is complete. Randomly select 5 reimbursements and obtain the related expense reimbursement forms/prepaid expense documentation of each selected reimbursement, as well as the supporting documentation. For each of the 5 reimbursements selected

- i. If reimbursed using a per diem, observe that the approved reimbursement rate is no more than those rates established either by the State of Louisiana or the U.S. General Services Administration (www.gsa.gov);

Results: No exceptions were found as a result of this procedure.
