RAGIN' CAJUN FACILITIES, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of organization:

Ragin' Cajun Facilities, Inc. (the "Corporation") is a Louisiana nonprofit corporation chartered in January 2001. Its purpose is to promote, assist and benefit the educational, scientific, research and public service mission of University of Louisiana at Lafayette (the "University"). The objectives of the Corporation are to acquire, construct, develop, manage, lease as lessor or lessee, mortgage and/or convey student housing and other facilities on the campus of the University.

The accompanying financial statements of the Corporation have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Significant accounting policies:

Allowance for doubtful accounts -

The Corporation considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required.

Restricted cash -

The Corporation's trustee maintains money market balances and other short-term investments required for financing the costs of the development, design, construction and equipping of new student housing and child care facilities (collectively, the "Facilities") for students, faculty and staff of the University, funding a debt service reserve fund, paying capitalized interest on the bonds, and paying costs of issuance of the bonds, including the premium for the Bond Insurance Policy. These reserved amounts are reflected as restricted cash on the statement of financial position. The funds are held in trust and can only be disbursed in accordance with the trust agreement by the trustee and intended for debt service payments or construction activities.

Money market funds are not bank deposits or obligations, are not guaranteed by the Bank in trust and are not insured by the FDIC, the Federal Reserve Board, or any other government agency and are collateralized by securities held by the financial institution's trust department, but not in the Corporation's name. These funds are reflected as restricted cash on the statement of financial position.

Restricted investments -

The Corporation's trustee invests idle bond proceeds during the construction phase in other short term investments to maximize interest earnings. At June 30, 2012, the trustee had purchased a number of state and local bonds with short-term maturities. In accordance with the Not-for-Profit Entities Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board's ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC"), the Corporation's investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are valued at their fair value in the statement of financial position.

Cash and cash equivalents -

For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Corporation considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Property and equipment -

Purchased property and equipment is recorded at cost at the date of acquisition. Depreciation is computed basis over the estimated useful life of the related assets at rates based on the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings and improvements	30
Appliances, furniture and equipment	10

Interest on debt issued to finance the construction of the facilities is capitalized as a part of the project. Investment earnings on temporary investments earned during the construction phase are netted against capitalized interest. When fixed assets are placed in service, they are transferred to the respective accounts and depreciated. Amortization of capitalized interest is consistent with the depreciation method used for buildings and improvements.

Federal income taxes -

The Corporation qualifies for an exemption from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes is made in the accompanying financial statements.

Use of estimates -

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair values of financial instruments -

The Corporation has adopted the provisions of the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC 820) for all financial assets and liabilities and nonfinancial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis (at least annually). ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements.

The Corporation's financial instruments are cash and cash equivalents, investments, accounts payable, contracts payable, interest payable and long-term debt. The recorded values of cash and cash equivalents and accounts payable approximate their fair values based on their short-term nature. The recorded values of investments and long-term debt are estimated based on the quoted market prices of the same or similar investments or issues.

ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received upon sale of an asset or paid upon transfer of a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date and in the principal or most advantageous market for that asset or liability. The fair value should be calculated based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, not on assumptions specific to the entity. In addition, the fair value of liabilities should include consideration of non-performance risk including the Corporation's own credit risk.

In addition to defining fair value, ASC 820 expands the disclosure requirements around fair value and establishes a fair value hierarchy for valuation inputs. The hierarchy prioritizes the inputs into three levels based on the extent to which inputs used in measuring fair value are observable in the market. Each fair value measurement is reported in one of the three levels which is determined by the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

These levels are: The fair value hierarchy is categorized into three levels based on the inputs as follows:

Level 1 - Valuations based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date. Since valuations are based on quoted prices that are readily and regularly available in an active market, valuation of these securities does not entail a significant degree of judgment.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Level 2 - Valuations based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly, as of the reporting date, and fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies.

Level 3 - Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment. The inputs into the determination of fair value require significant management judgment or estimation.

Concentrations of credit risk

The Corporation receives 100% of its facilities lease rental revenue from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

The Corporation periodically maintains cash in trust accounts in excess of insured limits. The Corporation has not experienced any losses and does not believe that significant credit risk exists as a result of this practice.

Note 2. Short Term Loans

Ragin Cajun Facilities, Inc. has entered into a loan arrangement with Lafayette Public Trust Financing Authority ("LPTFA") to borrow up to $400,000 at no interest, in accordance with a Cooperative Endeavor Agreement between the two entities. Under the loan agreement the Corporation may make draws on this line of credit to facilitate the renovation or construction of acquired properties for sustainable student housing. Payment of the advances are secured by the Corporation granting to the lender a first priority mortgage encumbering the property and improvements being constructed by the Corporation in furtherance of the Cooperative Endeavor Agreement.

At June 30, 2012, the Corporation owed $173,266 on the loan. The agreement expires June 15, 2016. Because advances are anticipated to be repaid through the sale of individual housing projects upon completion, the indebtedness is classified as a current liability as the duration of individual projects will be under one year.

Note 3. Long-Term Debt

Note 7. Disclosure About Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value:

Restricted Cash:

The carrying amount approximates fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments.

Rent and Contributions Receivable:

Rent and contributions receivable approximates fair value because of the short term nature or the receivable.

Investments:

Investments are carried at estimated fair market value within the financial statements.

Bonds payable:

Bonds are valued based on the estimated cash outflows expected discounted using market yields on tax exempt bonds with similar maturities.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following presents the carrying value and estimated fair values of each class of financial instruments as of June 30 2012.

	In Thousands
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
ASSETS
Restricted cash	$ 32,534	$ 32,534
Rent and contributions receivable	$ 1,343	$ 1,343
Investments	$ 24,752	$ 24,752
LIABILITIES
Bonds payable	$ 150,715	$ 158,678

In accordance with FASB ASC 820-10-50-1, the Corporation groups assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value in three levels, based on the markets in which the assets and liabilities are traded and the reliability of the assumptions used to determine fair value. These levels are:

Level 1 - Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in active exchange markets, such as the New York Stock Exchange. Level 1 also includes securities that are traded by dealers or brokers in active markets. Valuations are obtained from readily available pricing sources for market transactions involving identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Valuations for assets and liabilities traded in less active dealer or broker markets. For example, municipal securities valuations are based on markets that are currently offering similar financial products. Valuations are obtained from third party pricing services for identical or comparable assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Valuations for assets and liabilities that are derived from other valuation methodologies, including option pricing models, discounted cash flow models and similar techniques, and not based on market exchange, dealer or broker traded transactions. Level 3 valuations incorporate certain assumptions and projections in determining the fair value assigned to such assets or liabilities.

Below is a table that presents information regarding investments measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

	Fair Value	Fair value Measures at Reporting Date Significant Other Observable Inputs Level 2
June 30, 2012:
State and municipal bonds	$ 24,752,446	$ 24,752,446
June 30, 2011:
State and municipal bonds	$ 65,039,037	$ 65,039,037

Note 8. Subsequent Events

Subsequent events occurring after June 30, 2012 were evaluated through December 5, 2012 the date the financial statements were available to be issued. In October, 2012, the Corporation refunded $14,740,000 of Series 2002 Revenue Bonds with the issuance of Series 2012 Revenue Bonds. The refunding of the bonds and issuance of replacement debt at lower interest rates will result in the lowering of the base rental for Phase I of Legacy Apartments and the related debt service requirements on the refunding bonds. There were no other subsequent events that required disclose in the financial statements.

REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Directors
Ragin' Cajun Facilities, Inc.
Lafayette, Louisiana

We have audited the financial statements of Ragin' Cajun Facilities, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of and for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, and have issued our report thereon dated December 5, 2012. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit, we considered Ragin' Cajun Facilities, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control over financial reporting.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control over financial reporting was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that might be deficiencies, significant deficiencies, or material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Ragin' Cajun Facilities, Inc.'s financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed test of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

This report is intended solely for the information of management, others within the Organization, federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
